From Ms. Dismuke...

We're moving right along this week! Don't forget that spelling contracts are due each Friday. Students do not need to staple their contracts to their activities. We need them to keep the contract from week to week. If your child loses a contract one is posted on my website. Also, please remember that signed papers go home each Tuesday, so be on the lookout. We ask that you sign the green slip and send it back along with your child's MES folder on Wednesday. I've extended the Scholastic book order until this Friday. Remember that if you order online our classroom receives a new book. You can find the link on my website under "Book Order".
