

George E. Duvall

Motivational Speaker/Comedian

Who Is He?

George Duvall is a motivational speaker/comedian who is sharing his message of success with colleges and organizations across America. George graduated from Eastern Kentucky University with a degree in Public Relations. George spent 15 years of his life in foster care and in boys facilities. Now he speaks to audiences about the importance of fun, family, unity and higher education.

George has spoken at over 60 different events over the last seven years. His first speaking engagement was for the Kentucky State Foster Parent dinner in 1996. George spoke to an audience of over 400. Since his first speech, George has gone on to become one of the nations most entertaining and influential motivational speakers.

In October 2000, George was the key note speaker for the California Youth Connections Leadership conference in Eureka, CA. It was after this experience that he knew his positive message of success was one that could transcend state boundaries. On July 24, 2002, George was the closing keynote speaker at the Foster Family Treatment Associations 16th Annual National conference in Chicago, IL. George spoke to over 500 participants, including CEO's, Administrators and general conference attendees. After his speech, George received a standing ovation after listeners applauded with joy and excitement. George has spoken at other events and for organizations across America. Such organizations and events include: the University of California Santa Cruz Teen Conference in 2001 and University of California San Diego 2002 on behalf of the National Resource Center for Youth Development, Florida's Department for Children and Families, Virginia Department of Community Based Services along with Missouri's Department for Community Based Services. Other events include locally sponsored projects and speeches for Eastern Kentucky University's Training Resource Center.

TRAINER!

As a training professional and motivational speaker, George has spoken and facilitated several different training's: Self-Motivation, Independent Living and Cultural Diversity are a few. George has presented workshops and trained social workers, foster parents, youth and the general public. During his presentations and lectures the audience is moved by his sincerity, his courage and his straight talk about his experiences growing up in the foster care system.

Make'm Laugh, Make'm Cry. Make'm Think, Make'm ask Why!

George has combined his upbringing, life in foster care, college and personal experiences; into a forum all people can understand...laughter! George first started his comedic pursuit on the stage of Comedy Off Broadway in Lexington, Kentucky as a way to propose to his wife.

Since his first time on the comedy stage, George has started his own comedy show. George has seen the audience grow from 25 people to a standing room only crowd. The laughter and crowd response in Kentucky is backed by laughter and applause in many other comedy venues.
