FVC 2007 MISSIONS TRIP

A group of about 40 professionals from Faith & Victory—including preachers, pastors, doctors, nurses, and other medical personnel, teachers, construction workers, and singers—will team up with seven churches, the Ministry of Health, and Christian Doctors from Guyana to minister to the needs of the people in the capital city Georgetown and its surrounding areas.

Working with Dr. Winston McGowan and Rev. Elsworth Williams and their team of pastors and leaders, our team will run 10 medical clinics, do construction work on two churches, teach and preach in seven churches, conduct leadership and business seminars, and serve in the children's ministry.

Cost:

- $1595.00 per person
- $1450.00 per person (families of 2-3)
- $1350.00 per person (families of 4 +)

Cost Includes:

Transportation, Lodging, Meals, Airfare, Airport Tax, and T-Shirt.

We need volunteers to help sort, package, and label medical supplies.

"...where the Caribbean meets South America."

Kaieteur Falls, where the 400-foot wide Potaro River Plunges 822 feet downward from the Pakaraima Plateau, is the world's longest single-drop waterfalls.

It is 4/5 times higher than the Niagara Falls.
